PHILIPPINE REBELS INSIDE ARMY CAMP SURRENDER

MANILA, Dec 3, Reuter - A group of army rebels who seized parts of the armed forces headquarters in the Philippine capital surrendered on Sunday after a Roman Catholic priest interceded, the Philippine News Agency reported.

It said the 150 mutineers who occupied the chapel at Camp Aguinaldo after bitter fighting during the night turned over their guns to an army colonel after loyalist forces surrounded the chapel.

Colonel Jose Ancheta, who received the surrender, appealed to other mutineers entrenched in civilian neighbourhoods outside the camp to give up and "stop this madness and slaughter".
